

Joliet Arsenal Concert Tonight

The Ordnance Chorus, under the direction of O. L. Yeager, will present a spring concert in the Joliet Arsenal recreation hall at 8 o'clock Thursday night.

Mrs. Kenneth Crandall, accomplished harpist from Wilmington, will be the guest artist at the concert. She will play "Lucia di Lammermoor" and "The Brook."

The chorus will sing "I Love a Parade," "The Desert Song" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic. Capt. S. H. Arnold will sing "Who," "Trees," "Spring Bursts Today" and "Falling in Love with Love." A trio of Jean Musich, Mary Petropolis and Mary Fran Winburne will sing "Dry Bones," "Drinking Song," "Louisiana Hayride," "Carol of the Trees" and "This Is My Country."